SANFORD ROSE ASSOCIATES® CELEBRATES ITS 50TH ANNIVERSARY

AKRON (Ohio), December 1, 2008 – The Sanford Rose Associates Executive Search Network will celebrate its 50th anniversary in 2009 at its Annual Conference and Awards Presentation at Disney’s Contemporary Resort in Orlando, Florida, March 19th through 21st. The Sanford Rose Associates® Network is globally recognized as a leader in the recruitment of executive, managerial and professional talent.

During the past five decades, Sanford Rose Associates (“SRA”) franchise owners have helped client companies to build the organizations that have spawned many of the new innovations, products, and services in both industry sectors and functional niches. Those include healthcare, technology, energy, R&D, retail, finance/banking, and biotechnology/pharmaceuticals. Today, clients include a wide range of companies from start-ups to international conglomerate corporations.

Says CEO of SRA International, Inc., Richard J. Carter, the franchisor of the SRA Network, “Our vision is for our Owners to be recognized as the preferred providers for human capital management and talent acquisition for the global hiring community by, as our slogan indicates, “finding people who make a difference®.””

Sanford Rose Associates was founded in 1959 by pioneer and innovator Sanford Rose and it began expanding in the 1970s through the franchise licensing model. Today the SRA Network consists of more than 65 offices in the United States, Asia and Europe.
