

Sanford Rose Associates®

EXECUTIVE SEARCH

SRA International, Inc. is pleased to announce that three new offices were added to the Sanford Rose Associates® worldwide executive search network during the first quarter of 2010: Sanford Rose Associates-Phoenix, Sanford Rose Associates-Pittsburgh North, and Sanford Rose Associates-Austin. Below are brief bios of the Managing Directors of these new offices.

Joan Jordan, C.P.M. is the Managing Director of Sanford Rose Associates – Phoenix.

Joan has 30 years experience as a Supply Chain executive in the Semiconductor, Medical Instrumentation, Capital Equipment, and Telecom industries working for such companies as Fairchild Semiconductor, ON Semiconductor, Welch Allyn, Inc., Speedline-A Cookson Company (currently ITW) and BFI Communications Systems. As evidenced by her Lifetime Certified Purchasing Manager achievement, a certification designated by the Institute for Supply Management, she is uniquely qualified to assess complex supply and delivery challenges for her clients. Also, during her corporate career, Joan has hired dynamic leadership across technology based corporations, integrated leading edge software tools and introduced contemporary staffing practices. In addition, Joan is active in industry specialty groups and maintains a network of strong contributors to the profession.

Rodger Brown is the Managing Director of Sanford Rose Associates – Pittsburgh North.

Rodger has more than 30 years of executive management experience in biotechnology, medical devices, pharmaceutical, and diagnostics industries. He has held a number of senior positions, which involved leading domestic and international business development, sales, and marketing teams in both start-ups and multinational healthcare conglomerates. Some of the highlights of Rodger's career include leading commercial efforts for molecular testing services for AltheaDx, Inc., introducing an innovative technology for digital pathology in the drug discovery and the clinical markets as Vice President of Sales, Marketing, and Business Development for DMetrix, Inc., and leading commercial teams at Thermo Fisher (previously Thermo Electron), Roche Diagnostics (previously Ventana Medical Systems), Clariant, Inc. (previously ChromaVision Medical Systems), Quest Diagnostics (previously Nichols Institute Diagnostics), and Beckman Coulter Instruments.

Kenneth W. French (“Ken”) is the Managing Director of Sanford Rose Associates – Austin.

With a career spanning over 25 years in educational publishing, Ken held positions of increasing responsibility — with Fortune 500 companies, start-ups, and non-profit organizations, including sales, sales management, marketing, senior marketing management, business development, and vice president positions. During his career, Ken has held positions with the following companies: Pearson, McGraw-Hill, Holt Rinehart and Winston, Merrill Publishing, D.C. Heath, and Prentice Hall. Ken's career experience will serve him well as he focuses on the publishing, e-learning, digital publishing, content development, product creation, online corporate training, education and training, and professional development industries and niches.

We are excited to expand the Sanford Rose Associates brand into three additional territories and, to add three more high-caliber Owners to our network.
